MONDAY.

—We regret to learn that Julius Hanny is dangerously ill.

—Dr. Peters came in from his ranch Saturday evening. The doctor is clearing off the ground for a farm on his ranch.

—Mr. Flentge, of the firm of Flentge & Wood—The Boys—went to St. Louis Saturday after more new goods.

—Died in this city March 5th, 1892, Mrs. Doris Mahoke, aged 63 years 3 months and 19 days. The deceased was an old citizen of this city. She was a kind old lady and had a large circle of warm friends.

—Mr. Adolph Finkhaber, of the firm of Durre & Finkhaber, Evansville, Ind., is in the city. Mr. Finkhaber informs us that the Government will honorably relieve the goods recently seized in this city and they will be returned to his customers in a few days.

—Rube Miles has opened a lunch house on the levee where he will serve lunch at all hours, day and night. He proposes to keep a first-class house and he invites his friends and all others to call on him when they are hungry. He will keep a stock of tobacco and cigars on hand. Hot coffee on tap all the time.

—Twenty-six of the priests and seminarians of the College took dinner at Hotel Scott today. They were celebrating the Feast of Saint Thomas and they did justice to the feast.

—The meeting at the Presbyterian Church last night held for the purpose of getting up a petition to ask Congress to make it unlawful to open a World's Fair on Sunday, was a very interesting meeting. The preachers and the politicians had a little tilt, and the meeting being in a house of worship, as a matter of course the politicians were ordered out of order, but the World's Fair will be opened on Sunday notwithstanding.

—A prominent merchant says: "I have said Megrimine for over a year and guaranteed it to cure any headache without bad after effects and have not found a single case that it did not relieve. Sample free. The Dr. Whitehall Megrimine Co., South Bend, Ind. Sold by druggists."

—A man in favor of the World's Fair being opened on Sunday had no show at the meeting at the Presbyterian Church last night. The big Christians had the floor and we doubt very much if they would have given Christ a hearing had he put in an appearance at that meeting. The program was cut and dried and it was fixed that only the voices of those crying from the wilderness should be heard.

—We are informed that Rev. McElroy, in his speech at the Presbyterian Church last night, said that newspaper and railroad men were the most ungodly men living. Newspaper men are not hypocritical like some preachers.

—When you want anything in the way of printing or any more or religious advice just drop in at the Democrat office. We will give you work at reasonable rates and for the advice we will charge you nothing. The Lord loves the cheerful giver, and we are one of the fellows when it comes to giving good advice.

—Megrimine is the only guaranteed permanent cure for headache and neuralgia. Relieves in 20 to 30 minutes. A great blood cleanser and stimulant that in time positively cures. Sample bottle free. The Dr. Whitehall Megrimine Co., South Bend, Ind. Sold by druggists.

—We are for the opening of the World's Fair on Sunday. The poor people of this country cannot attend the Fair during the week days. They have to work for their living six days in the week and on the seventh day they should be allowed to see what the rich people and the dead heads are permitted to enjoy during the week. We are all Christians but because we do not all worship alike is no reason why some of us should be deprived of our rights to worship as best suits us.

TUESDAY.

—L. S. Joseph, cashier of the First National Bank, left the city this morning to visit relatives in Wisconsin, and Mr. D. A. Glenn is acting cashier in his place.

—The thief who would rob a church is surely a bad man. Next to a well regulated newspaper office a church is the nearest house to God on earth.

—Died in this city, March 8th, 1892, Fritz Fossold, aged about thirty years.

—The Masonic Hall will be illuminated with electricity.

—The Farmers are getting ready to begin their spring plowing.

—The S. Albert Grocery Company received a big lot of goods per steamer Jellidell today.

—The telegraph line between this city and Commerce is about completed.

—A painter traveling for a tobacco house is doing some nice sign work around town.

—They have hauled the sandstone away that was put on the ground for the foundation for the Sturdivant Bank and are putting lime stone on the ground to be used in the foundation.

—Mrs. Wesley S. Block, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mrs. J. W. Morse, of St. Louis, arrived in the city today on a visit to their sister, Mrs. Robert L. Wilson.

—Adam Frank says he heard the frogs singing yesterday as he crossed the Rock Levee on his way home from Scott county. That is a sure indication that spring time is near at hand.

—People who are building houses in this city now are preparing to have their buildings supplied with water from the water works. This is right. We will have water work sooner or later and it is well enough to be provided for that convenience.

—Ernst Regenhart, who handed in his resignation as depot agent for the St. Louis, Cape Girardeau & Fort Smith Railway Company in this city several weeks ago, will finish up his business with the Company today and next week he will go to St. Louis. The Company will not find as clever a young man for the position soon as was young Mr. Regenhart.

—Frank Fenebretter and A. J. Lang, of St. Louis, stockholders in the Cape Brewery and Ice Company, came down yesterday to take a look at the brewery. They were well pleased with the improvements made since their last visit.

—Megrimine cures any headache in 20 minutes. Sample free. The Dr. Whitehall Megrimine Co., South Bend, Ind. Sold by Druggists.

WEDNESDAY.

—The stockholders of the Cape Brewery and Ice Company received their certificates of stock today.

—Several Jackson people came in yesterday evening to attend a meeting of the Mahade Lodge.

—Will Jaden is in St. Louis purchasing goods for the shoe department of The Bee.

—How is it so that some people like to pay their debts to a newspaper office. Because we sent a bill to a party in this town the said party got mad and ordered the paper discontinued to the address. Well, we can go along without the patronage of such entities.

—Because we made a few suggestions about establishing a public library in this city some of our readers are disposed to get their backs up. In advertising a public library we said nothing but the truth and we said that in as mild a way as we knew how to express ourselves on the subject.

—Miss Virgie Cahoon, who has been on a short visit to Miss Lucy Leach in this city left this morning for her home in Fredericktown.

—Joe Jenger is in St. Louis purchasing some material for his proposed new house up on Broadway.

—Little Charley Mitchell is selling a lamp chimney cleaner that beats any thing we have ever seen in the way of a chimney cleaner. Every family in the city should have one or more of them for they save time and do better work than any thing ever made for cleaning a lamp chimney.

—English Spavin Liniment removes all Hard, Soft or Calloused Lumps and Blisters from horses. Blood Spavin Cures, Splints, Sweeney, Ring-Bone Stiffles, Sprains, all swollen Throats, Coughs, etc. Cures $2.50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the best English cure ever known. Sold by Rider & Whitehead, Druggists, Cape Girardeau Mo.

THURSDAY.

—Flentge & Wood sold a big lot of goods today to D. M. Newel, of near Jackson.

—The voters of the First Ward met at the court house last night and nominated J. A. Matteson and Dr. J. H. Rider as candidates for Councilmen for that ward.

—Will Flentge returned home from St. Louis today where he has been purchasing spring goods.

—There has been no weather flag out today. The cold wave last night must have froze this end of the Signal Service.

—William Hirsch, of the firm of Hirsch Bros, merchants, corner of Good Hope and Spring streets, is in St. Louis buying new goods.

—The spring goods displayed in the show windows of some of our stores look awful chilly for this season of the year.

—We turned out a job of pamphlet work this week for Cape Lodge I. O. O. F.

—J. F. Schweper received a big lot of game fish yesterday from Cottonwood Point, Pemiscot county. They were shipped to Mr. Schweper by our old friend, Dr. Hudgings.

—There will be a greater number of houses built this year than were built last year. The Sturdivant Bank building will be the largest and finest building that will be erected this year, and it will be the finest business house in the city.

—Deputy Sheriff Frazier, of Dunklin county arrested a young man named Wilberton yesterday evening in this city. The young man had been in this city about a week. He is wanted in Dunklin county for forgery. The officer left this morning with his prisoner for Kennett.

—Ernst Regenhart will leave for St. Louis tomorrow. The DAILY DEMOCRAT will visit him regularly.

—The Australian ballot law may be a good law, but so far as city elections are concerned it is badly muddled and needs some amending.

—The tax collector is here calling on delinquents to pay up. This is the last round and those who do not pay may expect to have some trouble.

—The voters of the Third Ward met last night and nominated Dr. Porterfield and Herman Vogelzang to represent that ward in the City Council. It was stated at the meeting that E. W. Flentge did not desire his name put on the ticket. Had he consented to serve if elected he would have been nominated.

—We would like to see the present members of the City Council remain in office another year. They have commenced work that they should be permitted to get through with. The water works proposition was gotten up by them and they are familiar with all the details connected therewith and can better carry out the plans than new hands could.

—John Grieb found a bunch of keys on the streets the other evening which the owner can have by describing the keys.

—We regret that Wm. Regenhart and E. W. Flentge have made up their minds to retire from the City Council when their term of office expires. We had hoped that all the old members would continue in office another year to finish up the business undertaken by them this year. Both the gentlemen could have been re-elected without opposition had they consented to allow their names placed on the ticket.

A New Lodge of the Ancient Order United Workmen.

A new lodge of this old reliable beneficiary society was instituted at Glen Allen, Polk county, on Friday evening, March 10th, by Deputy Grand Master Workman Frank L. Robin, of St. Louis, with thirty-four members on the petition for charter. A great many visitors were present from lodges located at Zalma, Marquette, Lattsville, Altonville and Cape Girardeau. From the latter point were Messrs. C. Koumke and L. Bon Miller, Glen Allen Lodge No. 123, started out under very favorable auspices, having the very best citizens of that vicinity among its membership. The following are the officers elected for this year: A. C. Snyder, P. M.; W. M. W. Bowman, M. W.; H. A. Sander, Foreman; Chas. W. Rhodes, Overseer; Jan. P. McManus, Recorder; A. Warren, Cashier; N. A. Zimmerman, Treasurer; C. W. Rhodes, Recorder; Geo. L. Moore, Inside Watchman; L. N. Linbaugh, Outside Watchman; A. B. Bell, A. P. Stevens and Jas. P. Bell, Trustees; J. P. Barry, M. D. Medical Examiner; A. C. Snyder, Lodge Deputy. As is pretty generally known, the A. O. U. W. is the oldest and the cheapest fraternal beneficiary order in existence, having a total membership of 270,000, 223 lodges in Missouri alone with a membership of 35,000. The members of this order paid but 15 dollars in assessments during last year for $2,000 protection or insurance as it is commonly called. There are ten lodges of this order in Cape county alone. We wish the new lodge at Glen Allen and the order in general God speed for it is performing a good work.

NEW PROPRIETOR.

Having purchased the store of John H. Sander, I would respectfully solicit the trade of all former patrons of his store and as many new ones as desire good goods at fair prices. I will treat all alike and try to make it to the advantage of all to deal with me, if fair and courteous treatment will be any inducement. I will keep a complete stock of dry goods and groceries and will always be ready to wait upon and attend to the wants of customers. I will buy and pay the highest market price for all kinds of country produce. When you have anything to sell or want to buy, anything in the dry goods or grocery line I would be pleased to have you call on me.

JOHN A. VANDERVEN.

Secret Society No. 93.

St. Mark's Lodge No. 93, A. F. & A. M. F. A. Kago, Master, held his regular meeting Tuesday night with a full attendance and lots of work. The attendance was swelled by the following visitors from Excelsior Lodge of Jackson, who came down in a body: Messrs. D. B. Selbert, M. Robb, W. R. McNeely, J. A. Snider, John Permitter, Wm. O'Brien, J. A. Hope and R. B. Barnes. The 3rd degree was conferred on two candidates. The Lodge worked until midnight, after which a repast was set and it was enjoyed by the brethren at that hour of night.

The different Masonic bodies here are experiencing an unusual degree of activity. The Blue Lodge, Chapter and Commandery all have candidates on the way. The Blue Lodge especially being crowded with work.

Reverence of Ministers.

We have exposed, during the last year, many swindlers who advertise, under the name of medicine, vile compounds which only increase human suffering. To all who need a pure medicine and blood purifier, we can honestly recommend Sulpher Bitters—Editor Sun.

AN IMMENSE ESTABLISHMENT.

The S. Albert Wholesale Grocery Company.

We take the following complimentary notice of the S. Albert Wholesale Grocery Company of this city from the St. Louis Interstate Grocer, a trade paper that has a large circulation in every State in the Union:

On March 1, 1892, the S. Albert Grocery Company, of Cape Girardeau, Mo., was incorporated with a capital stock of $30,000, with officers as follows: S. Albert, president; W. S. Albert, secretary; and C. S. Givens, treasurer. Judge Albert, the founder of this new house, has for thirty-five years been engaged in mercantile pursuits at this point, and through strict integrity and close attention to business, built up a comfortable fortune. He is a very public spirited man, fully alive to the interests of his town, has held many positions of trust, and at present is judge of the County Court. The secretary, Mr. W. S. Albert, is the eldest son, and has for several years been associated with his father in business. About five months ago they discontinued their retail department, and devote their attention entirely to wholesaling. W. S. Albert is the buyer, and has shown rare tact in the management of the business. He has the reputation of being a very shrewd buyer. C. S. Givens, the treasurer, is a son-in-law of Mr. Albert. He has entire charge of the books, and is a capable book-keeper. For several years Mr. Givens was a very popular clerk on the river. J. A. Paul, formerly with F. Smith & Son, of St. Louis, and J. C. Stone represent them on the road. In connection with their business they handle all the receiving and shipping of the boats. They also have a fine kiln and burn an immense quantity of lime, shipping a great deal of it to southern points. Cape Girardeau has an excellent reputation. The house has built up a fine and lucrative trade through Southeast Missouri. They do a fine business with Cape merchants, and have every prospect of a successful future before them. Of course, the Interstate Grocer visits them regularly, and they consider it the best trade paper extant.

GO SLOW WITH THE REELEY CURE.

The finding of the body of ex-Congressman Stephen T. Hopkins, of New York, in the tide water near Pleasantville, N. J., calls attention once more to Dr. Reeley's so-called "Reeley's" or "gold treatment" for dyspepsia.

Three weeks after Mr. Hopkins left the White Plains Institute he was found dead. While this event cannot be directly attributed to the remedy it is not impossible that the treatment contributed largely toward it. The man entered the Institute shortly after his release from an insane asylum and while yet suffering from a long delirium. These conditions are certainly not favorable to dangerous experiments, yet the mysterious Reeley's fluid was injected without stint.

What this substance is has not yet been definitely determined, and Dr. Reeley refuses to divulge its elements. That it leaves patients in an extremely nervous condition and that fatalities have followed shortly upon the heels of its administration are incontestable truths.

LET US HAVE A PUBLIC LIBRARY.

There would be wisdom and charity in establishing a public library in this city. There are many people who are unable to buy books for their families and by reason thereof they are brought up without the benefits and culture that reading gives. However it may be elsewhere, in this city the Protestant Churches neither draw audiences nor minister spiritually to any great number of our inhabitants. In fact, it is not for the persistent efforts of a few ladies in church buildings would be closed for want of money to pay expenses. If the truth is confessed, it must be admitted that the great bulk of recognized Protestants are utterly indifferent to churches and expect nothing from them, and congregations are so small that it is chilling to look over them. There is it not wise to devise some other way to bring good gifts to them? The money that is obtained for the churches by persistent importunity, and which is given by the public in mere complacency and not with an expectation by the donors that the public will be benefited by the gift is money grudgingly parted with. The same money, if given to a public library, would benefit a hundred persons to whom one now is benefited who attends church.

The churches are run in so narrow a groove and upon the theology of a century ago that the people have outgrown them, and we are sorry to say, pay little heed to what transpires concerning them. The Protestant preachers remain in the same old ruts of by-gone days and their preaching of to day is as dry as dust to the public.

Will not some of our public spirited citizens take the necessary steps to establish a public library?

A Voted General.

Noted as a general Tonic, Blood Purifier and appetizer, Lemon Chill Tonic stands rivaled and out-generaled by none. Read what the pastor of one of the largest churches in Paducah says: "I take pleasure in recommending Lemon Chill Tonic, prepared by the Lemon Chemical Co. I have used it in my family with admirable results especially in case of continued chills with a child. Children take it without the least opposition." Sold by Miller & Wilson, Cape Girardeau and Ben Schwab, Dutchtown, Mo.
